12 Spring Excellence Surgical Hospital LLC, et 13 al.,

14 Defendants.

No. CV-17-01688-PHX-DWL

ORDER

15 Pending before the Court is a motion for attorneys' fees and costs filed by Plaintiff
16 Advanced Reimbursement Solutions LLC ("ARS"). (Doc. 236.) For the following 17 reasons, the motion will be granted in part and denied in part.

18 BACKGROUND

19 ARS is a billing service that contracts with medical providers to process and bill
20 out-of-network insurance claims. Defendant Spring Excellence Surgical Hospital LLC
21 ("SESH") owns and operates a hospital in Texas.

22 On May 31, 2017, ARS filed a complaint. (Doc. 1.) At the time, ARS was 23 represented by the law firm of Schian Walker PLC ("Schian Walker"). The complaint
24 asserted, among other things, a breach-of-contract claim against SESH.

25 On June 8, 2018, ARS filed a motion for partial summary judgment, limited to the 26 issue of liability on its breach-of-contract claim. (Doc. 97.)

27 On June 29, 2018, SESH filed a motion under Rule 56(d) of the Federal Rules of 28 Civil Procedure for authorization to conduct additional discovery before responding to the

1 partial summary judgment motion. (Doc. 121.)

2 On July 12, 2018, the Court granted the Rule 56(d) motion. (Doc. 135.)

3 On August 10, 2018, SESH filed a motion to transfer the case to Texas. (Doc. 149.)

4 In December 2018—after about a year and a half of litigation—ARS switched to 5 new counsel, the law firm of Thorpe Shwer, P.C. (“Thorpe Shwer”). (Docs. 180, 181.)

6 On January 11, 2019, SESH’s motion to transfer was denied. (Doc. 186.)

7 On April 3, 2019, the Court imposed a $8,230.95 sanction award against SESH.
8 (Doc. 210.) The award stemmed from SESH’s counsel’s failure to attend a deposition in 9 Texas, which was one of the depositions that SESH had sought and obtained authorization
10 to pursue under Rule 56(d). (Doc. 206.)

11 On May 10, 2019, the Court granted ARS’s motion for partial summary judgment
12 on liability. (Doc. 215.)

13 On February 6, 2020, the Court granted ARS’s motion for partial summary
14 judgment on damages, awarding $734,934.03 plus fees and interest. (Doc. 234.)

15 On February 20, 2020, ARS filed a motion for attorneys’ fees and costs. (Doc. 236.)
16 The same day, ARS filed a bill of costs. (Doc. 237.)

17 On March 9, 2020, SESH filed a response. (Doc. 243.)

18 On March 18, 2020, ARS filed a reply. (Doc. 246.)

19 On April 28, 2020, the parties filed a notice stating that they had reached a 20 settlement concerning attorneys’ fees. (Doc. 247.)

21 On May 27, 2020, ARS informed the Court that the parties had not, in fact, settled
22 and thus requested a ruling on its fee motion. (Doc. 251.)

23 DISCUSSION

24 I. Parties’ Arguments

25 In its motion, ARS seeks $522,588.60 in fees—composed of $234,179.10 in fees
26 incurred by attorneys from Schian Walker and $288,409.50 in fees incurred by attorneys
27 from Thorpe Shwer—and $3,178.85 in costs. (Doc. 236 at 1.) In support of its motion, 28 ARS provided a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet containing an itemized statement of legal

1 services, as well as declarations from Tyler Grim (a former Schian Walker associate, see
 2 Doc. 236-3 at 2-4) and Sara Witthoft (a Thorpe Shwer partner, see Doc. 236-1 at 2-5)
 3 attesting to the reasonableness of each firm's fees.

4 In its response, SESH does not dispute that ARS, as the prevailing party in this
 5 action, is contractually entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees. (Doc. 243 at 2.)¹
 6 Additionally, SESH does not dispute ARS's bill of costs. (Id.) SESH does, however, raise 7 several objections to ARS's fee request, arguing that: (1) the Grim declaration is 8 insufficient to validate the request for $234,179.10 in fees paid to Schian Walker because 9 Grim was a junior associate who only worked on the case for five weeks and has no 10 personal knowledge as to whether other Schian Walker attorneys actually performed the 11 work in question or exercised reasonable billing judgment when doing so (id. at 2-4);
 12 (2) ARS is seeking reimbursement of $6,717.50 for time spent preparing and litigating a
 13 motion for sanctions related to a missed deposition in Texas, but the Court already granted 14 the sanctions motion and SESH already paid the resulting award, so the time entries in 15 question amount to impermissible double-billing (id. at 5-6); (3) because ARS made a 16 voluntary "decision to change law firms during the course of the litigation," the request for 17 $288,409.50 in fees paid to Thorpe Shwer attorneys should be reduced to eliminate "the 18 inherent duplication caused by a change in counsel [coupled with] no indication in either
 19 [Thorpe Shwer's] supporting affidavit or [Thorpe Shwer's] billing summary that any 20 'billing judgment' was exercised in connection with such transition and duplication" (id.
 21 at 6-7); (4) both firms' timesheets contain entries marred by impermissible "block-billing"
 22 (id. at 7-8); (5) due to extensive redaction based on the attorney-client privilege, many 23 entries fail to provide an adequate description of the service being rendered, in violation of 24 Local Rule of Civil Procedure 54.2(e)(2)(A) (id. at 8-9); (6) some of the entries from Schian
 25 Walker appear to concern legal advice rendered in unrelated matters (id. at 9-10); and (7)

26
 27 ¹ Specifically, section 12(e) of the parties' contract provides that "[i]f any legal action 28 . . . is brought in connection with this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, accounting fees, and other costs incurred in that action
" (Doc. 98-4 at 9.)

1 although SESH generally doesn't challenge the reasonableness of the hourly rates charged
2 by the Schian Walker and Thorpe Shwer attorneys, it does dispute the $595 hourly rate of 3 one attorney who is identified only by the attorney's initials (id. at 10).

4 In reply, ARS concedes that (1) SESH has already paid the sanction award, so the 5 related charges should have been omitted from its fee request, and (2) the time entries
6 SESH identified as pertaining to unrelated matters should be excluded. (Doc. 246 at 2, 5.)
7 Additionally, ARS attached to its reply a declaration from Cody Jess, a former partner at 8 Schian Walker who worked extensively on this matter, in an attempt to address SESH's
9 foundation-related objections to the Grim declaration. (Doc. 246-1.)

10 II. Analysis

11 The parties agree that Arizona law governs ARS's fee request. (Doc. 236 at 3; Doc.
12 243 at 2.) The parties further agree that ARS's entitlement to fees arises from an express
13 provision within the parties' contract. (Id.)

14 "Unlike fees awarded under A.R.S. § 12-341.01(A), the court lacks discretion to 15 refuse to award fees under [a] contractual provision." McDowell Mountain Ranch
16 Community Ass'n v. Simons, 165 P.3d 667, 670 (Ariz. Ct. App. 2007) (quotation omitted).
17 However, "[n]otwithstanding the general rule that attorneys' fees are enforced in 18 accordance with the terms of a contract, a contractual provision providing for an award of 19 unreasonable attorneys' fees will not be enforced." Id. at 671. "Assuming that the fees 20 requested [are] facially reasonable," the party opposing the fee request has "the burden to 21 show that they were clearly excessive." Id. at 672.

22 The District of Arizona's local rules identify some of the factors that may "bear[]" 23 on the reasonableness of the requested attorneys' fee award." See LRCiv 54.2(c)(3). Those 24 factors include, but are not limited to, the time and labor required of counsel; the novelty
25 and difficulty of the questions presented; the skill required to perform the legal service 26 properly; the preclusion of other employment by counsel because of the acceptance of the 27 action; the customary fee charged in matters of the type involved; whether the fee
28 contracted between the attorney and the client is fixed or contingent; any time limitations

1 imposed by the client or the circumstances; the amount of money, or the value of the rights,
 2 involved, and the results obtained; the experience, reputation, and ability of counsel; the 3 “undesirability” of the case; the nature and length of the professional relationship between 4 the attorney and the client; awards in similar actions; and any other matters deemed 5 appropriate under the circumstances. Id.

6 A. Hourly Rate

7 As an initial matter, SESH does not—with one exception—dispute the 8 reasonableness of the hourly rates charged by the attorneys from Schian Walker and Thorpe
 9 Shwer. The exception is a Schian Walker attorney identified in ARS’s supporting materials
 10 only as “PS,” who charged an hourly rate of $595.² SESH argues that “[n]o information
 11 is provided as to the identity of ‘PS,’ or his or her qualifications, or qualifications that 12 would render his or her hourly rate of $595.00 reasonable. In addition, [Schian Walker’s]
 13 engagement agreement provides the upper limit of the hourly rates as $560” (Doc.
 14 243 at 10.) ARS does not respond to these points in its reply. However, the Jess declaration 15 clarifies that “[t]he individual identified in time entries as ‘PS’ is Peter Sorensen, an 16 attorney Schian had hired at the time to consult with Schian Walker on complex
 17 commercial litigation matters” and that Sorensen was once a partner at Greenberg Traurig,
 18 LLP. (Doc. 246-1 ¶ 7.)

19 This explanation satisfies the Court as to the identity of “PS.” However, it fails to 20 explain why Sorensen’s rate exceeded the upper limit provided in Schian Walker’s
 21 engagement agreement. Additionally, the rate charged is at the high end of rates considered 22 reasonable for complex, high-dollar commercial litigation in the Phoenix legal market.
 23 Orman v. Central Loan Admin. & Reporting, 2020 WL 919302, *2 (D. Ariz. 2020)
 24 (declining to award $665 per hour and noting that other Arizona courts have generally 25 upheld rates only as high as $500 or $550 per hour in complex, high-stakes cases). This 26 case was not particularly complex (ARS described it in the parties’ Rule 26(f) report as “a 27 simple payment dispute,” see Doc. 187 at 3) and didn’t involve particularly high stakes

28 ² The entries attributed to PS are Nos. 254 and 463.

(ARS sought less than $750,000 in breach-of-contract damages). Accordingly, the Court will reduce the rate charged to Sorenson to $430 per hour, which is the maximum rate charged by the other Schian Walker attorneys in this case. This reduction results in an overall reduction of ARS's fee request of $792.

B. Duplicative Hours

SESH argues that "entries that appear on their face to be related to ARS'[s] transition to new counsel and new counsels' efforts to 'get up to speed'" must be eliminated as duplicative. (Doc. 243 at 6.) ARS responds that SESH has failed to explain how the disputed entries constitute duplicative work. (Doc. 246 at 2-3.)

"In determining a reasonable number of hours, the Court must review detailed time records to determine whether the hours claimed by the applicant were unnecessary, duplicative or excessive." Moshir v. Automobili Lamborghini Am. LLC, 927 F. Supp. 2d 789, 799-800 (D. Ariz. 2013) (citation omitted). Although "[a] litigant has the right to counsel of his choice in many circumstances," there is "no legal authority . . . that would require [a losing party] to pay for the hours [opposing counsel] expended to become 'caught-up' after a change of counsel entirely within [the prevailing party's] discretion." Id. at 800. See also Quint v. A.E. Staley Mfg. Co., 245 F. Supp. 2d 162, 181 (D. Me. 2003) ("It is unreasonable to charge a losing party with significant duplication of effort resulting from the prevailing party's decision to change counsel."); Hamilton v. Bradford, 502 F. Supp. 822, 838 (S.D. Miss. 1980) (reducing a fee award in part because "much of the time consumed by plaintiff's counsel in this action constituted a duplication of effort resulting from a change of law firms"). However, a "blanket assertion that the bill represents duplicative work is insufficient [because] it does not explain why the items billed on the first bill could have been avoided but for defendants' decision to switch counsel." Internet Brands Inc. v. Ultimatecoupons.com, LLC, 2013 WL 5575042, *4 (C.D. Cal. 2013).

Here, some of the entries challenged by SESH are, on their face, attributable to ARS's decision to switch counsel.³ For example, an early entry from Thorpe Shwer reflects

³ These entries are Nos. 502, 510-16, 518, 519, and 522.

1 that attorneys spent time “[r]eview[ing] and analyz[ing] . . . ARS’[s] motion for partial
 2 summary judgment regarding liability in district court case against SESH [and] ARS’[s]
 3 third amended complaint filed in district court.” (Doc. 243-1 at 69.) Because Schian
 4 Walker attorneys drafted those documents, it’s hard to imagine why, but for ARS’s 5 decision to switch counsel, review and analysis of those documents would have been 6 necessary. For the same reason, Thorpe Shwer’s review of Schian Walker’s case file
 7 pertaining to this matter is activity that would not have been necessary but for the decision
 8 to change counsel. Finally, time spent drafting motions to withdraw and substitute counsel
 9 would not have been necessary but for the decision to change firms. These hours are not 10 chargeable to SESH, and the Court will reduce the fee award by $5,192.50.

11 On the other hand, SESH has not demonstrated that the remaining challenged entries
 12 qualify as duplicative “getting up to speed” hours. SESH objects to all hours Thorpe Shwer 13 paralegals spent between December 14, 2018 and February 8, 2019 reviewing and 14 analyzing documents produced by SESH.⁴ Although Schian Walker attorneys and 15 paralegals also spent time conducting document review, SESH has not demonstrated that 16 these particular entries involved the duplicative review of documents already reviewed by 17 others. Of course, ARS hasn’t done the opposite—it hasn’t affirmatively shown that the 18 challenged entries involved the initial review of documents never reviewed by its former 19 counsel—but the burden ultimately falls onto SESH to show that the challenged entries
 20 “were clearly excessive.” Simons, 165 P.3d at 672. SESH hasn’t met that burden here, so 21 the Court will not eliminate those hours from the fee request.

22 C. Compliance With Local Rule 54.2

23 The bulk of SESH’s objections concern whether ARS complied with various 24 requirements imposed by Local Rule 54.2.

26 ...

27 ⁴ The entries SESH flags as duplicative but fails to explain why are Nos. 523, 545,
 28 548, 549, 552, 556, 559, 561, 565, 568, 570, 571, 579, 584, 586, 588, 594, 600, 619, 625,
 652, 665, 672, 675, and 680.

1 1. Affidavit Of Reasonableness, Necessity, And Billing Judgment

2 Local Rule 54.2(d)(4)(C) requires a party seeking fees to submit “an affidavit of 3 moving counsel” that, among other things, “state[s] that the affiant has reviewed and has 4 approved the time and charges set forth in the task-based itemized statement and that the 5 time spent and expenses incurred were reasonable and necessary under the circumstances.
6 This section also must demonstrate that the affiant exercised ‘billing judgment.’” Id.

7 SESH argues that the Grim declaration is insufficient to satisfy these requirements
8 as to the $234,179.10 in Schian Walker fees because Grim barely worked on the case and 9 lacks foundation to testify about whether the fees incurred by other Schian Walker
10 attorneys were reasonable, necessary, and reflect billing judgment. (Doc. 243 at 2-4.) In 11 its reply, ARS does not defend Grim’s qualifications. Instead, it attaches a new declaration 12 from Cody Jess, a former partner at Schian Walker who was present throughout the 13 engagement with ARS. (Doc. 246 at 1; Doc. 246-1.)

14 In general, when “new evidence is presented in a reply . . . the district court should 15 not consider the new evidence without giving the [non-]movant an opportunity to respond.”
16 Provenz v. Miller, 102 F.3d 1478, 1483 (9th Cir. 1996) (quotation omitted). However, 17 “[w]hile a party may not file ‘new’ evidence with a reply, it may file ‘rebuttal’ evidence to 18 contravene arguments first raised by the non-moving party in its opposition.” TSI Inc. v.
19 Azbil BioVigilant Inc., 2014 WL 880408, *1 (D. Ariz. 2014). See also E.E.O.C. v. Creative
20 Networks, LLC & Res-Care, Inc., 2008 WL 5225807, *2 (D. Ariz. 2008) (acknowledging 21 that “a party may not file ‘new’ evidence with a reply and then deprive the opposing party 22 of an opportunity to respond to the new evidence” but holding that evidence attached to 23 defendant’s reply was “proper” because it merely “rebut[ted] arguments first raised by 24 Plaintiff in its opposition to” the motion).

25 Here, the Jess declaration arguably qualifies as rebuttal evidence because it responds 26 to arguments raised in SESH’s response. Additionally, SESH has not moved for 27 permission to file a sur-reply and it appears to the Court that further briefing would be 28 futile—the new declaration cures the concerns SESH raised in its response. Jess avers that

1 he made his declaration “based on matters within [his] own personal knowledge” and that 2 Schian Walker attorneys “exercised sound billing judgment,” and Jess’s declaration does
 3 not contain “understandings” that could support a hearsay objection. (Doc. 246-1 at 1-2.)
 4 The Court thus declines to categorically reject ARS’s request for fees paid to Schian
 5 Walker.

6 2. Adequacy Of Time Entries After Redaction

7 Local Rule 54.2(e)(2) provides that “[t]he party seeking an award of fees must 8 adequately describe the services rendered so that the reasonableness of the charge can be 9 evaluated. In describing such services, however, counsel should be sensitive to matters
 10 giving rise to issues associated with the attorney-client privilege and attorney work-product 11 doctrine, but must nevertheless furnish an adequate nonprivileged description of the 12 services in question. If the time descriptions are incomplete, or if such descriptions fail to 13 adequately describe the service rendered, the court may reduce the award accordingly.” Id.

14 SESH argues that many entries⁵ from which ARS has redacted information (in the 15 interest of maintaining the attorney-client privilege) are now too generic to conduct a 16 reasonableness review. (Doc. 243 at 8-9.) ARS replies that the redaction of privileged 17 information is permissible under Local Rule 54.2(e)(2) and that, even after the redactions, 18 the entries provide enough information to assess whether the expenditures of time were 19 reasonable. (Doc. 246 at 4-5.)

20 Although the Court does not fault ARS for seeking to zealously protect the attorney-21 client privilege, some of the redactions in this case make it impossible to assess whether 22 the time entries constituted reasonable expenditures of time and/or were related to the case.

23
 24 ⁵ These entries are Nos. 2, 3, 5, 8, 9, 13-16, 22, 23, 25, 27, 43, 52, 68-70, 74, 77, 79, 25 92, 96, 98, 107, 110, 113, 119, 123, 128, 129, 131, 138, 151, 154, 156, 163, 165, 170, 177, 26 183, 184, 186, 191, 193, 195, 196, 202, 210, 225, 228-30, 243, 251, 256, 267, 268, 271,
 27 293, 294, 297, 303-05, 308, 316, 330, 333, 347, 363, 369, 376, 377, 383, 387, 391, 394, 28 395, 397, 398, 400-02, 404, 406, 408, 409, 414, 418, 419, 421, 422, 426-29, 438, 441, 443,
 444, 450, 458, 462, 466, 474, 478, 479, 483, 484, 494, 509, 512, 514, 524, 527, 536, 540-42, 553, 555, 566, 567, 576, 577, 580, 581, 620, 621, 653, 674, 691, 692, 697, 709, 710, 721, 725, 728, 736, 744, 747, 751-53, 757, 760, 762, 766, 773, 774, 777, 781, 782, 786, 787, 790, 794, 798, 801, 803, 804, 813, 814, 817, 833, 849, 855, 857, 859, 870, 874, 883,
 897, 906, 918, 922, 933, 937, 940, 942, 945, 946, 957, 963, 966, 967, 969, 972, and 973.

To provide one example, the entry at line 210 seeks to bill 1.0 hours for “Corresponded with clients re: [redacted for privilege].” This is insufficient under Local Rule 54.2(e). Oskowis v. Sedona Oak-Creek Unified Sch. Dist. #9, 2019 WL 5066821, *8 (D. Ariz. 2019) (“Although the local rules don’t provide an explanatory example for how emails or letters should be documented in an attorneys’ fee motion, the closest parallel is telephone conferences. Thus, the Court will not grant attorneys’ fees for email/letter time entries that don’t identify to whom the email/letter was sent or the subject matter of the email/letter.”).

Accordingly, the Court will not grant fees for entries in which ARS has redacted the subject matter of the communication.⁶

3. Block-Billing

SESH argues that ARS’s attorneys engaged in impermissible block-billing, which makes it impossible to assess whether certain time expenditures were reasonable.⁷ (Doc. 243 at 6-7.) ARS replies that (1) many of the entries SESH flags as block-billed are not block-billed, and (2) the block-billed entries are, in any event, sufficiently descriptive for the Court to assess whether the time expenditures were reasonable. (Doc. 246 at 3-4.)

“‘Block billing’ is the time-keeping method by which each lawyer and legal assistant enters the total daily time spent working on a case, rather than itemizing the time expended on specific tasks.” Welch v. Metro. Life Ins. Co., 480 F.3d 942, 945 n.2 (9th Cir. 2007) (citation omitted). “While not forbidden by case law, block-billing makes it nearly impossible for the Court to determine the reasonableness of the hours spent on each task. Where the Court cannot distinguish between the time claimed for the various tasks, the Court will reduce the award accordingly.” Moshir, 927 F. Supp. at 799. Nevertheless, the fundamental question is “whether time entries meet the basic requirements of listing [attorneys’] hours and identifying the general subject matter of [their] time expenditures.”

⁶ The Court notes that entry No. 859, to which SESH objected on the basis of inappropriate redaction, contains no redactions and provides a sufficient description for the Court to conclude the fee was reasonable.

⁷ In the interest of reducing the administrative burden posed by this order, the Court will enumerate only those entries where the block-billing causes a need for wholesale elimination of fees associated with a time entry.

1 Maki v. N. Sky Partners II LP, 2018 WL 4042455, *2 (D. Ariz. 2018) (internal quotation
 2 omitted). See also Oskowis, 2019 WL 5066821 at *9 (“[B]ecause the entries provided 3 sufficient detail regarding the various tasks that were performed, the fact that the tasks are 4 included in a single entry does not render the entries deficient”). Courts tend to award fees
 5 despite the presence of block-billing where the billing is for “closely related tasks, each
 6 covering no more than a few hours.” Maki, 2018 WL 4042455 at *3. See also Sunstone
 7 Behavioral Health, Inc. v. Alameda Cty. Med. Ctr., 646 F. Supp. 2d 1206, 1217 (E.D. Cal.
 8 2009) (“[E]ven where hours are block-billed, a district court should refrain from reducing 9 fees until it first determines whether sufficient detail has been provided so that [the Court]
 10 can evaluate what the lawyers were doing and the reasonableness of the number of hours 11 spent on those tasks.”) (internal quotation omitted).

12 Here, ARS is correct that some of the disputed entries aren’t actually block-billed.⁸
 13 Where the attorneys specified how much time they spent on a given task, the mere fact that 14 the tasks were presented in a series (rather than a separate row) allows the Court to 15 distinguish between the time claimed for various tasks.

16 Many other instances fall into the category of block-billed entries that still provide 17 sufficient detail for the Court to assess the reasonableness of a time expenditure, involve 18 closely related tasks, and do not last more than a few hours. These entries are not deficient.

19 Nevertheless, some difficulty persists in light of ARS’s extensive redactions for 20 privilege. The block-billed nature of partially redacted entries makes it impossible for the 21 Court to separate out time that should fall within the scope of the fee award and time not 22 properly chargeable to SESH. Consequently, the Court will not grant fees for block-billed 23 entries where part of the block-billed entry is otherwise redacted in a manner that prevents 24 reasonableness review.⁹

25 ⁸ Specifically, entries Nos. 401 and 450 are not block-billed.

26 ⁹ The block-billed entries with such redactions are Nos. 2, 5, 15, 23, 27, 43, 52, 68-has reduced these entries by the full amount billed because it was unable to separate the

1 D. Other Disputed Entries

2 As noted, ARS has conceded that it inadvertently included some entries unrelated
3 to this litigation and entries related to sanctions already paid by SESH. Accordingly, the 4 Court will strike these entries, which reduces the fee award by $9,627.45. (Doc. 246 at 5.)

5 E. Conclusion

6 After the reductions discussed above, ARS's fee request of $522,588.60 will be 7 reduced to $444,799.70. Although this sum may, at first blush, seem high relative to the 8 overall amount at stake in this action (as noted, ARS's total recovery was less than 9 $750,000), the Court finds it to be "facially reasonable." Simons, 165 P.3d at 672. SESH
10 has not argued that the overall amount sought is disproportionate and SESH helped 11 contribute to the expenditures in this case through its motions practice.

12 Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that:

13 (1) ARS's motion for attorneys' fees and costs (Doc. 236) is granted in part 14 and denied in part.

15 (2) SESH is ordered to pay ARS attorneys' fees in the amount of $444,799.70 16 and costs in the amount of $3,178.85.
